

Gerhard Schwarztrauber

Our vineyards are located in and around Mußbach, a small village in the “Pfalz” (Palatinate) which belongs to the idyllic town of “Neustadt an der Weinstraße”. We have been a member of the “Bioland” organization and produce organic white and red wines in accordance with nature for more than 35 years. Our long wine growing tradition, best workmanship and a professional approach have led us into the highest range of German organic vintner. Numerous prizes and awards prove the extraordinary quality of our organic wines. Again we are the most successful winery national at “Mundus Vini BioFach”.

Become part of our innovative team as:

Intern (m/f/d) in the grape harvest

Our range:

- an internship from the beginning of September for 2 – 3 months
- Insight into the biological working method

We offer:

- work in beautiful natural vineyards with different soils
- A varied internship in a wide range of work areas
- opportunities to take on responsibility
- Exchange of experiences with trained winegrowers and oenologists

Internship content:

- Vineyard work and monitoring of the vineyard following the vine cycle
- Preparation of the cellar including cleaning measures
- Follow-up of the winemaking process with the various tasks in the cellar
- Monitoring of the fermentation process

Our expectations:

- You have the right to work in Europe
- You enjoy working in a team and enjoy spending time in nature
- Responsible, efficient and careful way of working
- Flexibility in working hours
- Independent work
- Driver Licence (preferable)
- Communicative English, Polish, French or German skills

Bioland Weinmanufaktur Gerhard Schwarztrauber

Lauterbachstraße 20

67435 Neustadt an der Weinstraße

Telefon: 06321 – 968561

weingut@schwarztrauber.com